00:07

hey Marlee how are you today okay

00:11

so I brought you in and I was going to talk to you about um I know you are 00:14

00:13

having some issues that when we're doing

00:19

some reading it's sometimes harder to do

00:21

that you're getting that upset in class

00:24

and I thought what we could do is do

00:30

something called a class pass okay so what 00:34

you do is I've got some passes for you

00:38

you're allowed to have three okay and so

00:42

if you feel like you start working on

00:46

your reading and it just gets too hard for you

00:48

and you feel like you need a break I

00:51

want you to you're allowed to give me

00:54

one of these class passes you have to

00:56

fill out your name the time and then

00:59

it's your first class pass okay and you

01:01

can bring it to me and then you'll be allowed to go to Mr. Bradley's

01:04

01:06

classroom and he'll had we could play I

01:10

love you Rummikub y'all can play

01:13

that for about ten minutes let you calm

01:16

down talk to him then come back to class

01:19

okay when you come back to class you'll 01:22

just come in quietly and just start

01:26

where you left off from when you left

01:30

okay okay and you are allowed three of 01:34

these I know I said that and you cannot 01:38

use them right after each other

01:41

okay so let's say that you had used one

01:45

in the morning like at ten o'clock then

01:49

when you need to at least wait an hour

01:51

before we use it the next one okay do

01:56

you have any questions no okay

02:00

Marlee let's think about when we might 02:02

need a break because I want you to be 02:05

able to ask for the break on your own

02:08

How does it feel when you start to get

02:12

upset I get angry so angry I want to cry okay so if that 02:20

starts to feel you start to feel that

02:22

way that is when you need to ask for the 02:25

break okay not waiting until you're 02:28

already crying when you start to have 02:30

that first feeling of it that's when you

02:32

write out your name your time and number

02:35

one pass whatever number pass it is and 02:38

then bring it to me

02:40

okay okay guys we're gonna work on our 02:43

fluency in reading so I want you to turn

02:46

to page 10 and you're going to have 02:49

90 seconds to read the page and begin

03:26

okay Marley you can go to Mr.

03:29

Bradley's room hey Marley come spend

03:34

some time with me yea and you want to play a

03:36

game

03:37

yep got one right here

03:40

You ever play rummikub uh huh all right we're 03:43

gonna play this one right here okay

03:57

hey Marley

03:59

thank you so much for coming in quietly

04:01

and you didn't use any of your other passes

04:04

so you know what that means they will 04:08

earn you a reward and this so it will be

04:12

just a minute

04:12

and you're gonna be able to play that

04:14

fun game you love on the phone

04:16

okay okay
